

Cameron Rucker

201-555-0000 | camrucker@columbia.edu | linkedin.com/in/camrucker

PROFILE

---

Research analyst and business development professional focused on the international development sector. Seek to utilize education and industry specific knowledge to complement experiences derived from military leadership and diplomatic security positions abroad.

EDUCATION

---

Columbia University

Bachelor of Arts in Economics

Honors: Dean's List; Presidential Global Fellow

New York, NY

May 2019

EXPERIENCE

---

Hatch

Energy – Business Development Analyst

New York, NY

May 2018-Present

- Analyze cost-benefits and local risks for an East African photovoltaic, grid, and energy storage project
- Compose technical paper on economic and logistical effects of maritime law on US offshore wind industry
- Discover potential clients and presented solutions, strategies, and opportunities for project development
- Conduct site assessment and concept design analysis for an offshore wind terminal in New York City
- Perform ArcGIS spatial analysis and conduct surveys for a Staten Island infrastructure project
- Establish and develop new offshore wind collaborative business practice resulting in multiple projects

FourBlock-Veteran Career Readiness

Columbia Campus Coordinator

New York, NY

Aug. 2017-May 2018

- Supported Regional Director with program logistics, coordinating events with corporate partners
- Developed an annual recruitment, engagement, and communications plan to brief FourBlock leadership

United States Marine Corps

Sergeant, Non-Commissioned Officer, Assistant Commander

Embassy Guard- United Kingdom, Liberia, Poland

Various Locations

Jan. 2012 -Jan. 2015

- Established procedures dictating emergency responses which mitigated security threats and vulnerabilities
- Implemented new emergency SMS notification program which improved embassy security posture
- Analyzed and filtered real time intelligence that led to the safety and security of embassy property and staff
- Trained and mentored over 50 Marines as the Assistant Commander at multiple detachments

Aviation Mechanic and Avionics Technician-Twenty-nine Palms, CA

Jun. 2008-Dec. 2011

- Led a safe and successful operation of the first urban Marine Corps drone flights in South Korea
- Created technical procedure enabling pilots to efficiently deliver accurate ordnance strikes on drone targets
- Administered airfield site surveys for interagency drone operations in Hawaii, Nevada, and South Korea

ACTIVITIES

---

Veterans Attaining Higher Education (AHE)

Veteran Board Member

Columbia University

Aug. 2017-Present

- Reviewed and developed guidance and tools for transitioning military members seeking higher education

Securities Industries Institute

Student, executive development program

Wharton School of Business

Mar. 2017

- Developed leadership, management skills, knowledge of financial markets, and investment strategies

AWARDS, SKILLS & INTERESTS

---

Awards: Navy/Marine Corps Achievement Medals (2); Presidential Global Fellow; SCI Government Clearance (2012-2017)

Computer Skills: Proficient in Microsoft Office, Stata, SAP, ArcGIS, Python, and Tableau

Interests: Summited Mt. Kilimanjaro, travelled to over 30 countries